

1 Adopt 2 Cal. Code Regs. Section 18313.6 to read:

2 § 18313.6. Online Posting: Redacting Sensitive Information.

3 (a) An elected judge, district attorney, county counsel, or city attorney with a reasonable
4 privacy concern related to the online posting under Regulation 18313.5(b) of an individual's
5 address, or a family member's name or other personally identifiable information, may file a copy
6 of any required statement, solely for online posting, redacting the following:

7 (1) The address of the individual.

8 (2) The name of the family member.

9 (3) The address of an entity at which the family member is employed.

10 (4) The name of any entity if the name of the entity would reveal the name of the family
11 member or the address at which the family member lives or is employed.

12 (b) Any official filing a redacted statement pursuant to subdivision (a) shall also file an 13 original non-redacted statement containing all information required under the Act. The official 14 must also include with the redacted statement a written notification clearly identifying for the 15 Commission what information has been redacted, and explaining the reason for the redaction.

16 (c) Names or addresses redacted as specified in subdivision (a) shall be clearly designated 17 as redacted on the schedule on which the name or address would otherwise appear.

18 (d) Any redacted statement filed for online posting under subdivision (a) shall be subject
19 to the review of Commission staff, as delegated by the Commission's Executive Director. If it is 20 determined that the official has redacted information other than that permitted by this regulation,
21 the official shall be provided with no less than 30 days to amend his or her redacted statement
22 prior to the online posting of the official's original non-redacted statement.

1 (e) For purposes of this regulation a family member includes an official's spouse, child,
2 parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law,
3 nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, first cousin, or the spouse of any of these persons.
